Our Mission

SAMHAJ is a program of NAMI NEW JERSEY, a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the lives of individuals and families affected by mental illness.

SAMHAJ provides support, education, advocacy and referrals for people of South Asian origin, including immigrants from India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Maldives and Bhutan.

SAMHAJ offers support groups and referrals to bilingual mental health providers and service agencies. We also offer education on mental illness, treatment options and resources. SAMHAJ also provides cultural competence training for mental health agencies, schools and other organizations that provide services to South Asians in New Jersey.

Mutual Support

In the SAMHAJ self-help group, caring members help one another learn to cope with the effects of mental illness. They find understanding, acceptance and mutual support in times of crisis. SAMHAJ offers hope, support, education and a community of friends who understand.

Education

Through educational activities, workshops, conferences and newsletters we provide information about the latest research and available treatments for mental illness. Our awareness activities foster understanding and dispel stigma against mental illness. We help professionals, government officials, law enforcement and the general public understand mental illness from the perspective of those affected by it. We provide a free 12 week Family-to-Family education course for family caregivers of individuals with mental illness. Taught by trained family member volunteers, the course discusses the treatment of schizophrenia, bipolar disorder, major depression, panic disorder and obsessive-compulsive disorder and teaches family members skills to cope more effectively.

Referrals

We provide referrals to bilingual mental health providers, to free services for families affected by mental illness and to other agencies and organizations that can help.
