WHAT TO DO WHEN YOUR LOVED ONE EXPERIENCES CRISIS
SUICIDAL IDEATION

- Giving away personal possessions
- Talking as if they’re saying goodbye or going away forever
- Taking steps to tie up loose ends, like organizing personal papers or paying off debts
- Making or changing a will
- Stockpiling pills or obtaining a weapon
- Preoccupation with death
- Sudden cheerfulness or calm after a period of despondency
- Dramatic changes in personality, mood and/or behavior
- Increased drug or alcohol use
- Saying things like “Nothing matters anymore,” “You’ll be better off without me,” or “Life isn’t worth living”
- Withdrawal from friends, family and normal activities
- Failed romantic relationship
- Sense of utter hopelessness and helplessness
- History of suicide attempts or other self-harming behaviors
- History of family/friend suicide or attempts
HOW TO RESPOND TO SUICIDE WARNINGS

- Ask questions
- Express concern
- Listen
- Reflect
- Let them know you are there for them
- Let them know there are treatments available
RESPONSE OPTIONS

- Call the Mental Health Provider
- Go to the emergency room
- Contact a Respite House near you
- Contact a mental health crisis response team if one is available
- Call 911 and ask for someone with mental health experience (CIT)
HOW CAN YOU HELP YOUR LOVED ONE IN THE SITUATION

- Keep your voice calm
- Avoid overreacting
- Listen to the person
- Express support and concern
- Avoid continuous eye contact
- Ask how you can help
- Move slowly

- Offer options instead of trying to take control
- Avoid touching the person unless you ask permission
- Be patient
- Gently announce actions before initiating them
- Give them space, don’t make them feel trapped
- Don’t make judgmental comments
- Don’t argue or try to reason with the person

Safety can't be assured
The person is a danger of hurting themselves, others or major property destruction
Immediate life-threatening situation

CALL 911
THINGS TO REMEMBER WHEN YOU CALL 911

Ask for someone with mental health experience, like a Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) and tell them:

- This is a mental health emergency
- If threats have been made
- If there are weapons involved
  - History of violence
  - Current diagnosis
  - Current medications
HOW WILL LAW ENFORCEMENT RESPOND?

Take Charge and Assess the Situation

Decision Maker

- May decide a crime has been committed (Ex: domestic violence)
- May decide hospitalization is needed and place a hold to transport
- May decide that the person does not need hospitalization and will recommend additional resources such as a Respite House
EMERGENCY ROOM

- Doesn’t guarantee admission to hospital
- Bring medical information, including doses of all current medications
- County Crisis teams can assist with triage, if there are mental health crisis teams in your community
- Admission is determined by doctor
- Be prepared to wait

WHAT TO DO WHEN YOUR LOVED ONE IS IN A MENTAL HEALTH CRISIS DURING COVID-19

• N.J.S.A. 26:13-1 The Department of Health considers a designated support person essential to patient care for patients with disabilities where the disability may be due to altered mental status, intellectual or cognitive disability, communication barriers or behavioral concerns. Therefore, hospitals are required to allow a designated support person to be with the disabled patient during hospitalization.

  • This designated support person can be a family member, personal care assistant or another disability service provider knowledgeable about the patient’s care and must be allowed to remain with the patient while in the hospital, subject to the restrictions set forth below.

• Screening Centers are still OPEN: https://www.state.nj.us/humanservices/dmhas/home/hotlines/MH_Screening_Centers.pdf

  • DMHAS has authorized all screening centers in the state of NJ to conduct screenings via telehealth, either by phone or video. Example: Acute Psychiatric Services is the first screening center in the state to standardize this process.

WHAT TO DO

IF YOU ARE WORRIED that you or your loved one is in crisis or seeking help, make sure to assess the immediate safety of the situation, to help determine where to start or who to call:

- Is the person in danger of hurting themselves, others, or property?
- Did you have time to speak with a peace officer for guidance and support for a mental health professional?
- Do you need emergency assistance?

If you think the situation is life-threatening or if you see any signs of suicide, call 911 or seek immediate assistance.

TECHNIQUES that May Help

De-escalate a Crisis:

- Keep your voice calm.
- Avoid raising your voice.
- Listen to the person.
- Express understanding and concern.
- Avoid criticizing or blaming.
- Ask how you can help.
- Avoid escalations like raised voices.
- Offer to call a crisis response service.
- Avoid talking to the person unless you ask permission.
- Be patient.
- Gently remind actions before escalating them.
- Give them space, don’t leave your last words.
- Don’t make judgmental comments.
- Don’t argue or try to reason with the person.

Information you may need to communicate:

- Mental health history:
  - Diagnosis:
  - Medications, current medication:
  - Suicide attempts, current threats:
  - Drug use:
  - Contributing factors (e.g., current stressors):
- What has helped in the past:
- Any delusions, hallucinations, loss of touch with reality.
